ABOUT THE HOUSE

Welcome to The Temple House

Let us show you around...

As you step through the entrance, your experience begins. Enjoy the mix of modern and traditional as our reception — a beautifully restored more than a century old Chinese Courtyard building — opens up to greet you. Behind the elegant bamboo frames, traditional step stones, and beyond the historic Daci Temple built during the Jin Dynasty, lays The Temple House, with 100 modern guest rooms and 42 adjoining serviced apartments known as The Temple House Residences.

From the moment you arrive at The Temple House, we hope to create a memorable and personalised experience for you. Whether you wine and dine at our restaurants and bar, venture out and explore the neighbourhood, or just relax and unwind in our elegant and spacious rooms designed by UK-based Make Architects.

The Temple House is the fifth hotel in Asia from Swire Hotels and the third property from The House Collective. As we travel to new destinations, we hope you'll join us on the journey.
